LIBERTY LOAN OVER-SUBSCRIBED HALF BILLION; MEANS DEMOCRACY'S TRIUMPH

CRUISER IS TORPEDOED BY GERMAN SUBMARINE

British Ship Lost; Crew Saved; Haig Presses Gains in Big Drive Across Belgium Sector

IMPORTANT POINTS LEFT BY TEUTONS

Berlin Admits Retreat in Two Sections of Line; Strategic Move Is Being Watched For

BULLETIN
LONDON, June 15.—The British armed merchant cruiser Avenger was torpedoed and sunk in the North Sea on Wednesday night. All but one were saved.

The British campaign in Belgium gives signs of developing into one of the most important of the war. The Germans apparently are unable to resist the pressure being constantly applied to them and are being forced back at a comparative rapid rate.

Today brings the announcement of another considerable advance by the British in this area. They attacked last night in the region south and east of Messines and on both sides of the Ypres-Comines Canal, gaining all their objectives and capturing one big gun and seven machine guns, together with 150 prisoners.

The front line in the British offensive movement extends a distance of about seven miles from the village of Klein Zillebeke south to the River Warnave. Last night's attack, the culmination of constant pressure, yielded General Plumer's troops the German front trenches between the Warnave and the Lys besides additional ground more to the north in the sector between Ypres and Comines, the official statement indicates.

Signs of a probable further retreat of the Germans are not wanting. Confidential news detailed the withdrawal of the German big guns in the area east and southeast of Messines to the extreme limit of their range.

The British artillery command of the situation seems to be almost wholly responsible for this and other yielding tendencies of the Germans.

FLOODS BARRIERS.
FRENCH FRONT, June 15. (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—The Germans have not had so much success as the Belgians farther north in using floods as a barrier of defense along the line of the Oise. The river when it passes northward of the devastated town of Chaumery, now in the hands of the French, takes a sinuous course through marshy low lying lands, and the Germans after their forced retreat endeavored by damming at various places to place a wide stretch of water between themselves and the pursuing French troops.

HAIG HAMMERS LINE.
LONDON, June 15.—Blows struck by General Haig in the offensive along the Belgian border during the night advanced the British lines to a depth of 500 to 1000 yards along a seven-mile front, the British war office announced today.

The attack carried the British into German front-line trenches between the river Lys and the river Warnave. The British struck a blow last night on the front near Messines, the war office announced. They gained all their objectives, advancing south and east of Messines and astride the Ypres-Comines canal.

Some battlefront despatches today hinted such a retreat was already accomplished in part. This is the section in which Haig reported a relinquishment of first-line positions by the enemy yesterday. Confidential news detailed that practically the only German artillery fire was from very long-range guns, hinting that most of the German pieces have been moved back.

ADMIT RETREATS.
BERLIN (via London), June 15.—Retreat of the German forces at two points on the front in Belgium is reported in today's official statement. The Germans were pressed back by the British between Hellebeke and the region of the river Douve and also southwest of Warneton.

DEATH THREAT IS WRITTEN TO COUNTY OFFICER

Threats of death are made against county government agents unless they instruct exemption boards to excuse from military service all persons with "religious scruples against murdering brothers," in a note signed "Christ's sake," which was found under the door of the county building this morning. While District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes is inclined to believe that the note is a hoax, he has nevertheless ordered a rigid investigation in an effort to discover the identity of the writer of the disloyal and treasonable note.

Following is a copy of the note: "To County Government Agents. 'Unless you instruct exemption boards to promptly excuse from military service all persons with religious scruples against murdering brothers in the common fatherhood of God, you will be exterminated in the cause of righteousness, the word of God teaching us that he who loses his life in His service shall receive his reward in Heaven. 'One who is not afraid to die for Christ's sake.'"

The note, written on a Western Union telegraph blank in penciled capitals, was found this morning and had evidently been slipped under the door during the night.

"The note was written either by some religious fanatic who is mentally unbalanced," said Hynes. "I prefer to believe that it was written by some person for a hoax but in any event the matter will be thoroughly investigated."

Roscoe Jones, Family, Hurt In Auto Crash

Struck by a high-power car, the occupants of which did not stop to offer help, an automobile driven by Roscoe D. Jones, president of the Oakland civil service commission, was capsized at Santa Clara and Walsworth avenues this morning and Jones and five of his relatives in the machine had narrow escapes from death.

While the police summoned to the scene of the accident took up the chase after the automobile which caused the collision, the members of the Jones automobile party were removed to the Merritt hospital. Mrs. Helen Jones, a sister of Jones, suffered the most painful hurts, several stitches being taken in a nasty cut on her upper lip. She and the others in the party who were hurt were later able to go home.

In the Jones machine at the time of the collision were, besides Jones and his sister, his mother, his little daughter and a young nephew, Maurice Daly.

As their automobile was being driven at a slow rate a large, fast-traveling car crashed into it from behind. The Jones car was upset and its occupants were thrown out to the roadway. Without so much as slowing down to ascertain the result of the collision the driver of the other machine speeded up and was out of sight before the number of his car could be secured.

Chief of Police Petersen ordered his men to keep a close look-out for the runaway car and notices were ordered posted in towns throughout this and neighboring counties, giving a description of the machine.

FACTS DEMANDED.
WASHINGTON, June 15.—The Senate today passed the Smoot bill asking the administration whether the Enfield rifle has been adopted for army use in place of the Springfield rifle and also to give the facts regarding the standardization of arms and ammunition of the allies.

EXPERTS AT U.C. TO FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS

Fund Is Raised for Great Work; New Discovery to Be Used in the Search for Plague Cure

California May Solve Gravest Problem in Medicine; Noted Men Will Assist in the Work

TRIBUNE BUREAU
2015 SEATTLE AVE.
BERKELEY, June 15.—With a fund of $7500 at their disposal, scientists of the University of California presently will commence such an onslaught upon tuberculosis as that dread disease has not recently experienced. Several hundred dollars has already been set aside by the regents and $1000 is immediately available. The fund was appropriated from the state defense fund, upon which Governor Stephens made demand for $3500.

The work will be conducted in the pathological laboratories at the university. It will have as its basis the investigation of taurin, the substance discovered by Dr. M. Takeoka of San Francisco. With Dr. Frederick E. Gay, head of the department of pathology of the university and one of the best-known pathologists in the country, he will conduct the investigations.

Dr. Gay stated this morning that the administration of taurin to human beings suffering from tuberculosis had commenced, the preliminary stage of animal experimentation having been passed. It was still too early, he declared, to make certain public announcement of its efficacy. More and more hope for it was entertained as investigations proceeded. Its absolute safety for human administration had, he concluded, been proved beyond doubt.

REGENTS DONATE.
The regents' donation toward the investigation fund was made at their meeting Tuesday. Yesterday Governor Stephens filed his request with the State Council of Defense for the additional $3500. It is expected the council will grant the request, feeling that the attack on tuberculosis is a part of the conservation program it has adopted.

Dr. Takeoka's discovery of taurin was made public after his experiments had continued for not less than fifteen years. He is a graduate of a medical college of Tokyo in 1904 and began his study of tuberculosis upon coming to this country in 1901.

His discovery was premised upon the supposition that the human body contains within itself all the materials it needs to cure its own illness. His experiments with guinea pigs, preceding the more recent ones with human beings, involved the injection of bile. This substance, the province of which he explains to be to destroy and render negligible improper matter and harmful substances finding their way into the body through the stomach, can also be used to destroy the bacillus of tuberculosis. The proper ingredients for his cure he has found on the California beaches. From abalone meat he draws the taurin, or bile, with which the injections are made.

WORK EXPENSIVE.
The expense incidental to securing the taurin has to this time interfered considerably with the experiments. Almost $20 a treatment has been its cost, and as between twenty and thirty treatments are necessary, the total has run to between $400 and $500. But a portion of the funds now to be available will be spent in correlated experiments toward producing the taurin more cheaply. In this phase of the work Dr. Takeoka is being assisted by O. M. Murali, a chemist.

The laboratory of the compound in the laboratory is expected to be one of the real achievements of the investigation. The substance is also obtained from the ox or bull, but from this source, too, it is extremely expensive. Dr. Takeoka explains that taurin is not a new substance to the medical profession, but that its application to the treatment of tuberculosis is the really new thing.

SINN FEIN PRISONERS ARE FREED

Leaders in Irish Rebellion Are Given Releases by British; Many Affected by the Order

Comrades of Casement and Fighters in Bloody Battles in Dublin Among Men Pardoned

DUBLIN, June 15.—All Irish prisoners arrested at the time of the rebellion last year were released today by the British government.

The insurrection in Dublin, known as the Sinn Fein revolution, began on April 23, 1916, when soldiers and members of the Royal Irish Constabulary were fired upon from windows facing on St. Stephen's Green. Rebels inside the protesting corner, powered opposition and opened the doors for their comrades to march in. This building was barricaded inside with desks and tables. Other bands of rebels took possession of houses in Sackville street and fired from the roofs upon any soldiers that appeared in sight.

An attempt was made to take Dublin Castle, but the guards defeated the crowd after a spirited skirmish. In College Green, Stephen's Green and Sackville street passing automobiles, cars and other vehicles were forcibly taken from the drivers and wedged into barricades.

Soldiers from Curragh arrived the following day and their appearance brought peace for a time. The rebels were quiet, but the task now remained to dislodge them from the houses which they had barricaded. Fighting broke out afresh on Wednesday, April 25, and troops recaptured the postoffice.

The fighting on Thursday and Friday grew to the intensity of a battle. Naval patrol boats in the Liffey river sent shells into the buildings held by the rebels and naval guns were landed and used in the streets. Liberty Hall was completely wrecked by shell fire and a portion of Sackville street looked like a bit of Rheims after German bombardment. Fires were started, which raged unchecked for hours, in the heart of the business section. As the rebels were driven from one building they would take possession of another. Continual shooting was carried on from roofs between the soldiers and rebels.

CLIMAX IS PASSED.
By Saturday the climax of the revolt was past. On Monday morning the last of the rebels surrendered. More than 1200 were made prisoners. It was estimated that 500 had been killed and 1500 wounded and $100,000 worth of property had been destroyed during the seven days of disorder.

Small revolts in other parts of Ireland, simultaneous with the Dublin outbreak and a part of the general plan for the throwing off of the British rule and the establishment of an Irish republic, were put down without difficulty. Countess Markievicz and a force of 100 rebels surrendered and most of the small bands of armed men were easily surrounded and captured.

Sir Roger Casement, who was captured on the Irish coast while attempting to land arms and ammunition from Germany, declared that his capture defeated the revolution by depriving the movement of its head. Court martials of the leaders of the Dublin revolt were held in the first week in May. Ten were sentenced to death and shot and a number were sentenced to life imprisonment.

CASEMENT TRIED.
The examination of Sir Roger Casement for high treason began in the Bow-street Police Court in London on May 15. Two days later he was committed to trial before the High Court of Justice.

AMERICA'S ANSWER TO GERMANY IS DECISIVE

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Half a billion dollars more than was asked! That is America's answer to Germany and German military aggression.

Treasury Department officials said this afternoon that the total of the subscription to the Liberty Loan will be about $2,500,000,000. The exact total will not be available until very late tonight. Subscriptions close at 12 o'clock—standard time—for the localities. This means that when the lists are finished at San Francisco it will be 3 o'clock this afternoon in Washington. Inasmuch as the totals then will have to be telegraphed to the federal reserve centers and from there to this city, it may be night before Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo can announce the complete amount.

COUNTY IS MAKING GOOD ON ITS QUOTA

Oakland has subscribed $5,700,000 to the Liberty loan fund.

Alameda and Contra Costa counties have subscribed $8,222,000.

These figures are official, but incomplete, and Edison F. Adams, chairman of the executive committee of the Liberty loan committee, having direction of the campaign in the two counties, said at 2 o'clock this afternoon the indications were that the allotment of $9,000,000 will be equaled, if not exceeded.

While there was no special allotment for Oakland, the incomplete figures show that this city has more than done its part.

Oakland banks have done a rushing business since early this morning. Long lines of men and women have swamped the clerks in charge of the Liberty Loan subscriptions.

Band concerts in the downtown streets of Oakland enlivened the work of the "bell ringing brigade" of the Chamber of Commerce and the speaker.

Two Million Americans Aid Big War Purse
BY UNITED PRESS.
WASHINGTON, June 15.—The rank and file of America at war today answered Uncle Sam's request for an initial war loan of two billion dollars by giving that and many millions more.

LIBERTY BONDS ARE SOLD ABOVE PAR ON 'CHANGE

NEW YORK, June 15.—The initial transaction in Liberty loan bonds, trading in which began on the New York Stock Exchange at noon today, was above par. A lot of $10,000 sold at par and 100 1-50. The next lot, $20,000, sold at par.

CHICAGO, June 15.—"Informal" bids of 101 for Liberty loan bonds were made on the floor of the Chicago Board of Trade today.

Pacific Coast Does Its Full Duty on Bonds

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—That the Pacific Coast will do its full duty and subscribe its entire allotment of Liberty Bonds was indicated by reports pouring into campaign headquarters here today.

Most of the larger cities in Oregon, Washington and California have already over-subscribed their allotments, and the flood of gold for the aid of the government continues to pour in.

Governor A. C. Kains of the Twelfth Federal Reserve Bank today announced that San Francisco's subscription to the Liberty Loan at 10 a. m. totaled $45,000,000—$2,000,000 more than the city's quota—and that the money is coming in faster than it can be counted.

Oregon continues to roll up a big over-subscription to the loan, and holds the palm on the coast. Its allotment of $3,500,000 has been exceeded already by $3,100,000, and the money is still coming in.

Reports from other coast cities to the United Press follow:
Tacoma — Allotment, $2,200,000; subscribed, $2,564,000.
Stockton — Allotment, $2,368,000; subscriptions, $2,368,000.
Sacramento — Quota, $3,600,000; total subscription up to today, $3,325,000; short of quota, $275,000; committee announced the allotment will be over-subscribed.
Seattle — Allotment, $5,200,000; subscriptions, $8,755,600.
San Diego has completed its allotment of $2,000,000.

In the district south of the Tehachap, in Southern California, definite figures are not yet available. The Los Angeles committee announced that the original allotment for that district was $2,000,000, and that this has been slightly over-subscribed. Later, this quota was increased to $2,500,000, and this latter figure has been under-subscribed by $12,000,000.

Every federal reserve district, with the possible exception of Atlanta and Kansas City, appeared to have exceeded its minimum allotments. Reports from these two districts were slow in coming in. With thousands of banks to be heard from in the two districts, however, it seemed likely that the minimum allotment would be reached in each case.

Reports from every section of the country told of an avalanche of small subscriptions at the last moment. Scores of small investors were standing in line at hundreds of banks throughout the country during the final hour.

Swelling the huge total by millions came belated subscriptions of the banks that held back till the last moment. Clerical forces of virtually every reserve bank were practically buried under a landslide of eleventh-hour subscriptions.

Because of this situation, the exact total subscriptions may not be known for many hours.

The over-subscription, according to Robert W. Wooley, director of publicity for the loan, probably would reach a billion dollars.

Telegrams pouring into the Liberty loan bureau just before midnight today were eloquent in their terseness.

LONG LINES AT BANKS.
These messages from New York, Richmond, Baltimore and other Federal Reserve districts pictured glowing long lines of persons standing before bank windows in every section of the country awaiting anxiously their chance to do their financial bit in "driving the golden nail in autocracy's coffin."

The average subscription, officials say, will amount approximately to $1000. Secretary McAdoo has announced that over-subscriptions or late subscriptions will be accepted in this loan. No definite step has been taken with regard to holding the subscriptions for the next loan, which will be for $3,000,000,000 to loan to the allies.

The New York Federal Reserve district is understood to have already subscribed for more than $1,100,000,000.

Only two districts are expected to fall short of their allotment.

"The Liberty loan has been over-subscribed," said Secretary McAdoo this afternoon. "It is impossible to state the amount of over-subscription at the moment, but the exact figures will be given out as rapidly as the returns are received at the treasury department."

"The success of this loan is a genuine triumph for democracy. It is the unmistakable expression of America's determination to carry this war for the protection of American rights and the re-establishment of peace and liberty throughout the world to a swift and successful conclusion."

"I am deeply grateful to the banks, the business men, the women of America, the patriotic organizations, and the people generally, without whose cordial co-operation and enthusiastic support success could not have been won. It has been an incredible triumph."

Bonds Over-Subscribed With Rush Means Big Triumph For Democracy

spiriting campaign and it has had a glorious finish."

OVER BILLION AT NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 15.—While no official figures were available, it was believed certain this afternoon that the New York federal reserve district had subscribed to more than $1,000,000,000 of the Liberty loan.

Five minutes before the subscription books closed for the Liberty bonds United States Judge Hand signed an order permitting the Equitable Trust Company and the Bankers' Trust Company to invest more than $3,000,000 of money on deposit in those institutions in the bonds.

The money is part of that subject to attachment by the Equitable on account of foreclosure proceedings against the Denver and Rio Grande railroad.

CLOSES WITH BIG RUSH.

CHICAGO, June 15.—The Chicago federal reserve district has subscribed approximately $300,000,000 to the Liberty loan, according to a statement made by W. A. Heath, chairman of the Reserve Bank, shortly after noon today.

Of this amount it is estimated that Michigan subscribed $66,000,000. When the issue closed long lines of men, women and children were standing before the banks in various parts of the city.

Hundreds of excited citizens surged around the entrance of the Federal reserve bank.

BIG SUBSCRIPTIONS MADE IN COUNTY

ers from the Liberty Loan Committee headquarters.

"Buy Liberty bonds! Invest now before it is too late. You have until noon."

This was the ultimatum delivered to the hangers-on.

And those that have held back "came across" with a rush.

Berkeley, Alameda, the outlying districts all reported tremendous eleventh hour enthusiasm for the bonds.

In forty-five minutes yesterday afternoon the employees of the Standard Oil Company at Richmond invested $75,000 in Liberty Bonds.

Hardly had Joy Munsell and Frank de Lisle finished their talks on the Liberty Loan when the workmen began to crowd upon the bond salesmen.

This amount was brought up to approximately $125,000 at noon today.

The members of Oakland's fire department had invested more than $17,000 in bonds up to 8 o'clock last evening. They were continuing to buy bonds this morning.

County Treasurer Kelly announced that the members of his office staff had acquired $7000 of Liberty Bonds. He, himself, purchased $3000 worth.

At the Hotel Oakland the employees have invested $11,000 in bonds.

Crockett, the small Costa county town, turned in a total of $44,000 to the Liberty Loan.

The Santa Fe shop employees at Richmond have purchased over $12,000 in Liberty Bonds.

A striking feature of the closing day of the campaign was the purchase of forty $50 bonds, $2000 in all, by Dr. S. H. Buteau. These bonds Dr. Buteau has distributed among his friends.

SAVINGS INTEREST PROTECTED.

The banks of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda announced last night that all those who withdrew savings to purchase Liberty Bonds would not lose the interest on their deposits due on July 1. This interest will be paid just as if the savings had not been withdrawn.

When a rally of the shipbuilders in Hanlon's Shipbuilding Yards gathered at a noon rally yesterday, D. J. Hanlon, president of the company, stirred the men to enthusiasm in a straight-from-the-shoulder American talk. He said:

"If any man doesn't buy a bond when he is able to do so, he'd better go to Germany and fight for the Kaiser."

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 15.—Indianapolis exceeded its allotment of $10,000,000 of Liberty bonds by nearly a million dollars.

SCHOOL BOARD TO PROTECT WORKERS

High school boys, who work during their summer vacations, will in the future have the co-operation of the board of education in obtaining employment as the result of action taken by the board last night. The board last night passed a resolution to the effect that the board will endeavor to secure employment for the students during the last few days of the term and will allow the students to work during the summer months.

Ray N. Wood, president of the students body of the Technical high, writes from the camp of the Red River Lumber Company near Westwood, that the boys have found conditions quite to the contrary to what they had been told, but he says the boys must stay there until they earn enough to pay their way home.

PROBE IS STARTED.

In the meantime Secretary Dan Pratt of the board of education has started an investigation of this particular complaint and of Morris Cox, assistant superintendent of schools is devising some plan which the board can adopt for handling such situations in the future.

That the board will endeavor to co-operate with any corporation or organization that desires to employ students during vacation periods and through the state labor bureau of the state board of education make a thorough investigation of the proposition before solicitation is made among the students. Is the tentative plan of the board members.

Members who attended the meeting last night stated that it was difficult to make any arbitrary ruling in the matter, for the reason that much good may be accomplished by aiding students to obtain employment.

MUST SOLVE PROBLEM. "Many of the youths are obliged to work during vacation periods in order to help themselves through school," said Director Louis Aber, when asked regarding the situation. "If the board made it impossible for persons desiring employment to talk to them in a body many might be prevented from obtaining work that they need. But an effort should be made to co-operate to the extent that before anyone is permitted to visit the schools their proposition be fully investigated by the proper authorities. In the present case steps will be taken to ascertain the reason for the boys' complaint."

The session of the thirty-first grand parlor will close tonight.

The grand parlor subscribed $2500, and the subordinate parlors $15,000 for Liberty Loan bonds, it was announced.

Adoption of resolutions and the installation of the new officers were on the program for the final day's sessions.

ASK MINE PROBE

BUTTE, Mont., June 15.—A committee from the Metal Mine Workers' union, which has been protesting against wages and improved working conditions were refused yesterday, is expected to see United States District Attorney B. K. Wheeler today and ask him to request President Wilson to send a representative of the Department of Labor to Butte, to investigate working conditions in the mines.

The new union's demands were announced today for the first time by John McCarthy, chairman of the Metal Mine Workers' Union, who presented them to the employers. The demands are for recognition of the union, $6 for the daily wage of underground workers, examination of mines monthly and improved working conditions.

Several mines that were shut down because of the fire in the North Butte Mining Company's properties, resumed work today. It is said by mining men that at least 3000 miners in Butte are not working.

What to Avoid In Hot Weather

Carelessness Causes Many Ills.

Avoid iced drinks impure water unripe food, and eat sparingly of meat. In hot weather excessive thirst causes many people to indulge in iced drinks and other liquids injurious to the delicate tissues of the stomach. Physicians are unanimous in declaring that iced drinks, impure water and unripe food cause the major portion of such distressing ills as Diarrhoea, Cholera, Malaria, Typhoid, Cramps and stomach aches prevalent at this season. If you would avoid these distressing complaints begin at once the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It is conceded by many physicians to be a most valuable disease preventive. If taken in tablespoonful doses in equal amounts of water or milk before meals and on retiring you can be reasonably sure of protection from disease incident to summer weather. Don't fail to have Duffy's at hand at all times. It is your nearest doctor in case of emergency. Follow the example of thousands of others. "Get Duffy's and Keep Well." Duffy's is sold in sealed bottles only, $1.00, and is obtainable at most drug, grocery and dealers. If they can't supply you, write us. Useful household booklet free. LOSS OF CUTTER IS INVESTIGATED

LOS ANGELES, June 15.—Investigation into the sinking of the United States coast patrol McCulloch by the Governor was completed and a report of the findings of the board on its way today to Commander Russell, commander of the twelfth naval district, in San Francisco.

Findings of the board were not made public, the hearings being behind closed doors. It is understood on reliable authority, however, that during the examination it was brought out that the commander of the McCulloch, Captain Cattach, deliberately chose to have the McCulloch rammed rather than have his vessel strike a fatal blow to the big passenger vessel.

The board's report, after being investigated by Commander Russell, will be sent to the Navy Department at Washington where final action will be taken in placing the blame for the collision.

FOR HOUSEWIVES

The second of the series of war emergency demonstrations under the direction of Miss Lillian D. The demonstration and lecture will deal principally with pickling and preserving vegetables and meats. These demonstrations are proving very popular, a large number of women taking advantage of this opportunity to learn the proper methods of carrying out those housewife's pursuits.

SHEEP TRIM YARD

HAYWARD, June 15.—Placidly chewing their way through the rank grass, a small herd of sheep impressed "gardeners" are turning a wilderness of front lawn of a big Hayward home into a sward of velvet smoothness. The sheep were hired for the occasion to take the place of grass cutters and are doing the work very satisfactorily, besides furnishing their own board. The sight of the sheep on a front lawn in the Cherryland district has caused comment among the passengers on Oakland-Hayward street cars.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—"The U.S. to beat Germany is to flood the air with aeroplanes. Take the war out of the trenches and off the ground. Put it in the air." General George Owen Squier, chief signal officer of the United States Army, made this statement this afternoon. "Americans are not trench fighters," he said. "They crave something more sensational than that. They are the logical people to carry the war into the clouds."

BOYS GIVEN EMPLOYMENT ON RANCHES

High school boys are becoming more and more in demand as farm help in Alameda county, and at least 100 students will be at work in the Hayward and San Leandro districts within two weeks. Nearly forty boys from Alameda and Hayward are already at work and farmers have made requests to Farm Adviser, Harold W. Lee, for eighty more boys. Fred Stenzel of San Lorenzo is the second farmer to employ high school help on his farm, ten boys from the Fremont high school commencing their work in picking currants, peas and cherries. The boys in this instance made application themselves for the jobs. They are in charge of Samuel Russell, a student of the Oakland Technical high school and stay on the farm overnight in tents.

So eager are the boys to make good on the Stenzel farm that they work nine hours a day, although Farm Adviser Lee advised them that they would do better work with an eight-hour day. Their pay was set out about 15 cents an hour, of from 75 cents to $1 a day. This is clear as they are given their board and lodgings free. They are paid 11 cents for picking a box of cherries and three-quarters of a cent for picking a pound of peas, or 75 cents for 100 pounds.

MORE HELP SOUGHT.
The farmer Stenzel has plenty of requests after their work, and are provided with shower baths and other conveniences. Requests for high school help for the Meek ranch and by W. F. Perkins, a farmer, both of San Lorenzo, have been made to Farm Adviser Lee. The boys will be put to work picking apricots on these farms about July 4. Alameda high school students have been at work for some time on the farm of John H. Begier of San Leandro, and their number there was increased this week. The boys working on the Begier farm return to their homes each evening.

WANT $2.50 A DAY.
One of the reasons, it is said, why high school help is acceptable to farmers at present is the high cost of the ordinary farm labor. Although there is as yet no scarcity of help, farm workers are asking $2.50 a day instead of the usual pay of $1.75. It is believed that later in the season, when apricot picking commences, there may be a scarcity of labor, but the high school boys will supply the necessary help.

Organized for the purpose of regulating the supply and demand of farm labor, the labor bureau of the Alameda County Farm Bureau will be in full operation in a week. Directors of the bureau will find out the labor needs of the farmers and will endeavor to secure assistance for them while ascertaining what is needed to find positions for farm laborers in search of a job. Each director will have posted in front of his house a sign, "Farm Bureau Free Employment Agency."

PIONEER IS DEAD
Mrs. Mary J. Clough, who died at 1445 Twenty-third avenue, Oakland, recently, was one of the few survivors of the pioneer women of California whose influence contributed much to the opening of the state. Mrs. Clough came to California with her parents in 1852, crossing the plains from Illinois. Her girlhood and young womanhood was passed in Sonoma and Tuolumne counties, where she married James P. Clough, at that time assessor of the county, and where her three oldest children were born. In 1863 she came to San Francisco and in 1875 she removed to Oakland, where she has lived ever since. Her surviving children are Edwin H. Clough, a newspaper; Alton H. Clough, formerly secretary and general manager of the Pacific Coast Box Company; George P. Clough, in the San Francisco H. Clough newspaperman; A. H. Clough, teacher in the Jefferson school, Oakland; Walter G. Clough, connected with the Toledo Sales Company, San Francisco; Warren Clough, and Mrs. Mary E. McMillen.

RECRUITING SLUMP
WASHINGTON, June 15.—Recruiting for the regular army slumped on Flag Day. Only 1030 men—the lowest number for any one day since the United States declared war on Germany—were enlisted. New York led with 172. Pennsylvania had 112, Illinois 90. The total enlisted since April 1 now stands at 146,517.

AFTER 'FLAPPERS' TO RECRUIT BIG WORKERS' ARMY

CHICAGO, June 15.—Fifty-five per cent of the women of the United States are "flappers," according to Mrs. Raymond Robins of the women's committee of the National Council of Defense. Mrs. Robins' definition of a "flapper" is a woman who does not work—women of all kinds, who live at home and are supported by their relatives. She hopes to recruit this class into war service after the registration of women has been accomplished by the Women's National Council.

"We want to recruit the 'flappers,'" Mrs. Robins said, "we want them to fill the places of the men who have gone to war. The 'flappers' are the nation's green reserve force of women. I believe they will volunteer their services."

Major C. S. Manchester, recruiting officer for the British army, arrived in Oakland today to urge enlistments of British subjects in the east bay cities. The council extended to the officer the privilege of posting any placards that may be desired to advertise the opening of recruiting offices here.

Major Manchester hails from Vancouver. He has been back from the front in France since the first of the year, after spending eighteen months in active service there. He has six brothers and a sister in the British service, his sister acting as a Red Cross nurse.

GERMAN IS HELD ON U. S. WARRANT

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—Arrested on a presidential warrant, accusing him of being a dangerous alien, Otto Lentz, a German, taken into custody at Red Bluff last night, was brought to this city today in custody of United States Deputy Marshal Thomas Mulhall. Lentz is accused of making many disloyal statements concerning the American flag and the President of the United States and is alleged to have set fire to several grain fields in Tehama county. Mulhall battled with Lentz last night when he placed him under arrest. The prisoner had a loaded revolver and a blackjack in his pockets. Lentz for the last several months has had a potato patch in Tehama county and recently, it is said, has allowed the potatoes to rot because, as he is alleged to have said, "I would rather see the American people starve than raise food for them."

TO OPEN SCHOOL

The fine art of cookery will be thoroughly demonstrated by domestic science lectures and illustrations of "Kitchen Economics" for two weeks, beginning Tuesday, June 18, by Miss Margaret Gleason, graduate of the University of Chicago and affiliated with the domestic science department of the University of California. Miss Gleason is being brought to Kahn's through the efforts of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, which is interesting itself in benefiting the people by easier and better cooking methods. Beginning Tuesday, Miss Gleason will lecture and give cooking demonstrations. Admission will be free. Hundreds of women have urged the Pacific Gas and Electric Company to arrange for her return to Oakland. All women are invited to join the Kahn cooking school.

BRITISH ARMY OFFICER IS HERE

Major C. S. Manchester, recruiting officer for the British army, arrived in Oakland today to urge enlistments of British subjects in the east bay cities. The council extended to the officer the privilege of posting any placards that may be desired to advertise the opening of recruiting offices here.

ENLISTMENT SLOW; DRAFT HINTED AT

BULLETIN.
WASHINGTON, June 15.—In addition to drafting men for the new national army the government will probably have to draft additional forces to fill up the regular army and National Guard. This view was expressed by afternoon, following returns showing only one thousand enlistments in the army yesterday, one of the lowest amounts since April 1. Recruiting has been on a slump for several days.

SACRAMENTO, June 15.—The war department and the national council of defense telegraphed today to the California council of defense asking aid in recruiting volunteers in this state. Only 230,000 of the required 300,000 recruits for the regular army have been secured to date, the telegram declared, and since registration day the average number of daily enlistments throughout the country have fallen from 2000 to 1400 men.

In addition the message, which is signed by W. S. Gifford of the national council, says: "Your attention is called to the recruiting situation of the regular army of the United States. Only 230,000 men have been recruited out of the required full quota of 300,000. There has been a very serious falling off in the number of recruits, which since registration day has dropped from 2000 per day to 1400 throughout the entire country. The recruiting officer in charge of your district has been instructed by the United States war department to get into immediate touch with your council, and the council of national defense hereby requests you to cooperate fully with such officer and to aid in every possible way in speeding up of the work of recruiting. Prominence should be given in local newspapers to the campaign for recruits which you may inaugurate, and the aid of speakers' bureaus or other means of publicity should be enlisted. Particular attention is called to the fact that men between the ages of 21 and 40, inclusive, are eligible for enlistment in the regular army."

100,000 MEN ARE PRISONERS OF BRITISH ARMY

LONDON, June 15.—More than 100,000 prisoners have been taken by the British during the war, James Ian Macpherson, parliamentary secretary to the House of Commons today. Up to the end of last May 75,067 prisoners were taken on the western front, to which must be added at least 8000 for the month of June. In Mesopotamia 10,900 prisoners have been taken since July 1, 1916. In Egypt the number of prisoners taken since July 1, 1916, is approximately 8735.

Of the western front the British armies have captured 434 guns since July 1, 1916. In Mesopotamia 132 guns have been taken since the beginning of the war exclusive of those lost at Kut-el-Amara and subsequently recaptured. In Egypt eighteen guns have been taken.

The territory regained by the British on the western front since July 1, 1916, amounts to 600 square miles.

PLACERVILLE, June 15.—Representatives of 19,000 Druids and Druidesses of the United Order of Druids of the Jurisdiction of California will gather here on Monday for the annual convention of the United Order of Druids of the Jurisdiction of California. The grand circle of California will meet here at the same time. An attendance of 800 delegates from both bodies is expected.

as well as all men who registered for military service. Men engaged in professions or trades necessary to the prosecution of the war should not be enlisted.

"It is exceedingly important that the regular army should be immediately recruited to its full strength with the least possible delay, and we rely upon you to impress the public with the urgency of the situation. Please report the steps and progress you may make in this urgent situation."

Pursuant to the request made in the telegram the state council of defense will seek the active co-operation of all county councils of defense in California in stimulating recruiting and also will work in active conjunction with the western department of the United States army in securing the required number of recruits.

LUTHERANS CLOSE BIG CONVENTION

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 15.—The first annual convention of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of America has been closed in St. Paul. The convention, which marked the culmination of years of planning for the Union of Norwegian Lutherans in the United States, opened June 6. The Union brought together 3000 congregations, comprising 500,000 members, who were separated into three groups for twenty-seven years by doctrinal differences.

At the closing session St. Paul and Fargo submitted invitations for the next meeting. A decision will be made later by a committee named for the purpose. General conventions of the new body are to be held every three years, but owing to the fact that many matters have been adopted temporarily, it is probable that a decision will be reached to hold the next general convention next year.

EXTEND SERVICES
The series of Prophetic Lectures being given at the Pleram Advent Christian church, Thirty-third street near West, by Evangelist E. Wallace Shepard of Portland, Ore., are growing in interest and attendance. Because of the interest manifest by the public the church has decided to engage Evangelist Shepard for another week. Services will be held every night next week except Saturday night and over Sunday, June 24.

THANKED BY G.A.R.
Resolutions expressing the thanks of the Memorial day general committee of the Grand Army of the Republic to the Mayor, Superintendent of Schools and the various ministers, patriotic and memorial organizations, school boys, public press and all other agencies which acted in aid of the organization have been adopted. Held Prisoner on Submarine
Sees Steamers Destroyed

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—Prisoner on board a German submarine for thirteen days while it was twice attacked by British cruisers and reported as sunk. Captain Emil Gabrielsen, mourned by his family as dead, arrived here yesterday to take charge of the Norwegian steamer Dicto, launched last Saturday from the Alameda yards of the Union Iron Works.

His adventures read like a chapter from Jules Verne's tale of Captain Nemo.

In the relation of his story, Captain Gabrielsen made only one reservation—the number of the U-boat. "I may be back in the war zone again. If I become a prisoner once more, I do not want to meet with any successful feelings. The Germans seem to know everything."

Gabrielsen was taken on board the Dicto on November 17, 1916, when the Dicto, as a part of the German fleet, was captured in the Bay of Biscay. The commander of the submarine informed Gabrielsen that he needed the coal and that he wanted the ship to follow the U-boat. To make sure that his order would be carried out, he took Gabrielsen on board.

"I followed the commander on board," said the captain, "and there found about thirty members of the deck staff and crew of a Danish steamer that had recently been sunk by the submarine. Our quarters were cramped.

"I followed the commander on board," said the captain, "and there found about thirty members of the deck staff and crew of a Danish steamer that had recently been sunk by the submarine. Our quarters were cramped.

submerged. When we finally came up again so that the commander could see through the periscope, the Dicto was gone. KEEP ON SURFACE.

"We made our way up toward the English channel and kept on the surface mostly at night. In the daytime we were below the surface. I fell into a kind of 'don't care' state of mind, but all the time I had a feeling that I should come out at right angles."

The third day we sighted a British steamer, and we rose to the surface. She was hailed, and proved to be unarmed. So warning was given and the captain brought on board.

But a flurry of smoke showed up on the horizon, and with incredible swiftness a cruiser bore down upon us. The commander took his time, but we submerged in perfect safety.

"Again we started on the old route, on the surface at night and below in the daytime. On the seventh day we sighted a French full-rigged ship whistling up, and were just going under the water when there was a terrible wrenching and grinding above us. For a moment I thought it was all over with us, but it seems that only the upper tube of the periscope had gone.

"But there we were, without an eye to see by. For hours we stayed below the water, and finally rose slowly. For five days we traveled only at night, and finally made our way into Emden.

REACHES HOME.

"When I reached my home in Norway, my folks were scared almost to death when they saw me. But I soon convinced them that I was not for sharks, and after four days at home, went on to London. Here I found the old Dicto and took her out for Genoa again. We had no adventures on the way. Finally, after a long time, we returned to the same spot that the first submarine had taken me on board.

"Here a German diver came up and ordered all of us into the boat. We were prepared, and just as the man lost his life and that was through falling overboard. We rowed away from the side of the good old Dicto and then a shell burst into her bilge. She sank in about forty seconds.

"Meanwhile my convoy, two trawlers and a small cruiser, had been keeping about five miles ahead of us. When the submarine arose they turned and began to fire at the submarine. The shells fell all around, but the German commander of the U-boat seemed to take no notice and did everything in almost a leisurely manner. When the trawlers and cruiser approached too near he calmly submerged and went on his way.

DETAILS KEPT.

Details as to the conveying of the steamer I must not give, as it may be of use to Germany. But I do know enough to say that in spite of the terrific havoc done by submarines, there is a very definite activity against them, and I hope that the submarine blockade is on its last legs."

GERMANS COMPUTE U-BOAT WAR COST

BERLIN, via London, June 15.—Under the caption "Submarine Warfare and War Costs" the North German Gazette has the following to say: "In none of the warring countries has the cost of the war been so accurately estimated as in Germany. The degree of attention one was previously led to believe it would. One is almost inclined to assert that the higher the war costs mount the less attention they arouse, and Lloyd George's work concerning the last silver bullets probably will never come true.

"The entrance of the United States into the war is accounted for in no small degree by the circumstances that they long since became the creditors of our enemies, whose bankruptcy they saw approaching and desired to avert as far as possible. In connection with the participation in the war by the United States and their far-reaching shipbuilding plans, it is especially desirable to protect the question of the costs of submarine warfare. The question is, do the material losses of our enemies compare with those we are suffering? The answer is quite plain.

"Offsetting the monstrous values which the entrance of the United States into the war has caused, the material losses of our enemies, those of England, not to mention the costs of meeting the submarine war, our losses are almost infinitesimal. The United States, in connection with the participation in the war by the United States and their far-reaching shipbuilding plans, it is especially desirable to protect the question of the costs of submarine warfare. The question is, do the material losses of our enemies compare with those we are suffering? The answer is quite plain.

NEW YORK, June 15.—For insulting the uniform of a United States army officer, Harry Breslin, 34 years, of 504 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street, was given the next thirty days in the workhouse.

Magistrate Nolan, in the Morrisania court, imposed the sentence upon Breslin after Corp. Raymond W. Slosser, described how Breslin had annoyed him aboard a subway train and finished with a trade against the army and the corporal's uniform.

You Cannot Expect To Have a Clear Complexion

By Constantly Massaging It With So-called Skin Foods or Creams, Often Rancid or Gummy.

Substitute Cuticura For One Week

And make Cuticura Soap and Ointment your every-day toilet preparations. They cannot possibly injure the pores. Contrast the purity, fragrance, comfort and convenience of these super-creamy emollients with "beauty fads" so common, tiresome and expensive. A bath with Cuticura Soap and hot water on rising and retiring thoroughly cleanses and stimulates sluggish pores, giving the complexion a fresh healthy glow. If signs of pimples, redness or roughness be present smear them with the Ointment and let it remain five minutes before bathing. Nothing purer, sweeter or more effective for your skin and hair than Cuticura no matter how much you pay for it.

Your Liver Is the Best Beauty Doctor

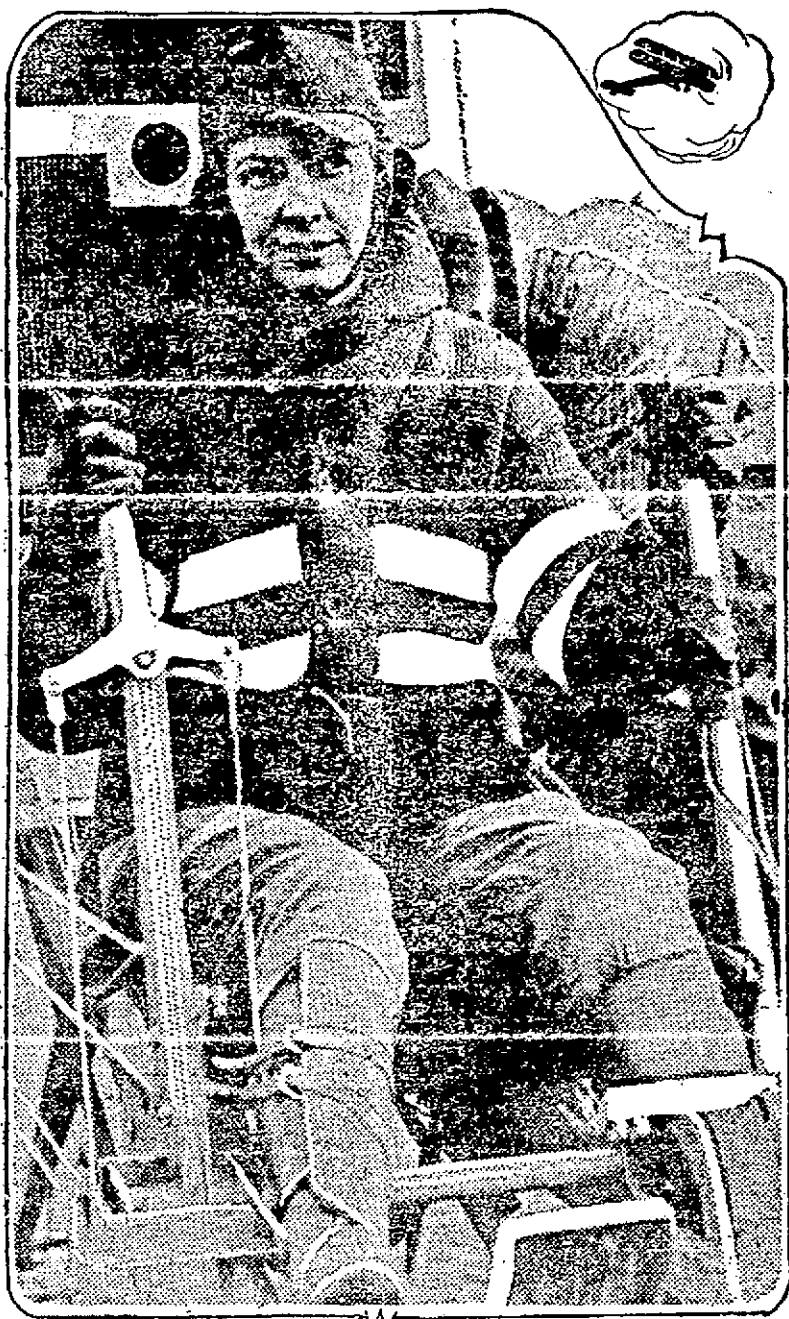

A dull, yellow, lifeless skin, or pimples and eruptions, are twin brothers to constipation. Bile, nature's own laxative, is getting into your blood instead of passing out of your system as it should.

This is the treatment, in successful use for 50 years—one pill daily (more only when necessary).

Genuine bears Signature. Colorless faces often show the absence of iron in the blood. Carter's Iron Pills will help this condition.

Quick Wit of Woman Aviator Saves Life in Blazing Plane

MISS RUTH LAW, aviator, who had narrow escape from death in a burning airplane.

Ruth Law Is Painfully Injured When Machine Catches Fire in Midair

ST. LOUIS, June 15.—Miss Ruth Law, aviator, is recovering from burns about the face today as the result of a narrow escape from death in a burning airplane. While flying over Lexington, Ill., last night on a St. Louis-to-Chicago trip the gasoline tank on her airplane exploded and enveloped the machine in flames, according to a telephone message received here. Miss Law pointed the nose of the airplane downward and descended with such a velocity that the wind blew out the flames. She was uninjured except for burns about the face.

LEXINGTON, Ill., June 15.—Ruth Law, patriotic aviator, soared away from an out field toward Chicago this afternoon. Engine trouble prevented her from getting away in time to shell Chicago with Liberty bond bombs. She planned to convert her trip into a crusade to aid marine corps enlistments instead.

LANSING RECEIVES LORD NORTHCLEFFE

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Accompanied by Ambassador Spring-Rice, Lord Northcliffe, who has come to this country to take charge of the work initiated by the British mission, today called upon Secretary of State Lansing. It is understood that he asked for an early audience with President Wilson.

Lord Northcliffe also conferred with Counsellor Polk of the State Department and Secretary of War Baker. Later he was to see Secretary of the Navy Daniels and Secretary of Commerce Redfield. He announced that he would make no statement in Washington, but would give an interview in New York.

TO SEEK MEMBERS.

RICHMOND, June 15.—Richmond council No. 10 of the Knights and Ladies of Security is about to launch a membership campaign, for which arrangements are being made.

FOOD BILL WILL MEET WITH DELAY

BULLETIN. WASHINGTON, June 15.—President Wilson threw his personal force behind the food bills today with the result that the Senate will begin work on the control bill tomorrow and may put it through ahead of the war tax bill and other measures.

Senator Chamberlain of Oregon has introduced the bill in the Senate. It will go before the Agriculture committee. The House has made provision to take it up Monday.

By Robert B. Smith. International News Service Staff Correspondent. WASHINGTON, June 15.—The administration food control plan, branded as "food dictatorship" by Democratic leaders, who are certain to balk or at least delay its passage in the Senate, probably will not become a law until too late to have any effect on this year's crop.

Unanimous consent to take up the Lever food control bill in the House on Monday has been obtained only after much bickering. It is said a week's hard fight will be necessary to put it through the House. Once passed on to the Senate it will face opposition from Senator Reed of Missouri, Senator Smith of Georgia, Senator Hardwick of Georgia and Senator Kirby of Arkansas—all Democrats.

This revolt, with the administration will make it necessary to win several Republican votes to pass the bill. In addition to this outright opposition the Lever bill will be before the Senate at the same time it is considering the war revenue bill, which the finance committee will report early next week, and the food bill probably will be pushed aside during the debate on the big measure.

After a week's consideration of the preferential routing bill Senator Newlands has consented to its amendment to satisfy opposition and it is hoped it will be passed and cleared from the Senate's agenda today.

Another obstacle to the prompt passage of the food legislation is the fact that it is going to be complicated with prohibition measures. Reed of Missouri has started an attack upon Herbert C. Hoover, the President's food dictator. Reed said the President wished to test Hoover with such power as neither Caesar nor the Kaiser ever had. Reed said: "This man Hoover was a mining engineer who went abroad to seek his fortune. It is proposed to give him such power as should not be given in a republic of free men."

"I speak of Hoover as an individual, because I wish to impress upon the Senate that no such power should be given to a man of flesh and blood. He is a man who has been away from this country and I wish to make the point that he does not know its needs as would a man who has remained at home."

Reed's fierce attack was criticized by Senators Kewen and Shepard. "George III. never attempted to license his subjects as does this bill," cried Reed. "We will all march in the Hoover procession."

ROTH WANTS PAY. RICHMOND, June 15.—Judge R. H. Lattimer has denied the petition of Justice of the Peace John Roth to mandamus the board of supervisors for the raising of the Richmond census to $10,000 that he may have his salary raised.

600 GUARDSMEN NOT REGISTERED

CHICAGO, June 15.—It was discovered today that a large number of letter carriers in Chicago failed to register on June 5 under the Federal draft law. Nearly 600 members of the National Guard also failed to register. They were under the impression that they were not compelled to register because they were in the Federal service. Local authorities are seeking information from Washington as to what shall be done in these cases.

About 100 shirkers are in Chicago jails for having failed to register under the draft law, June 5. The arrests came in an all-day and night drive by the police to round up men of military age who had not registered. Sixty men were arraigned before County Sinner Mason, but all but five were released when they agreed to register.

GIVEN JAIL SENTENCES.

COLUMBUS, O., June 15.—Frederick Jerger, secretary of the Maritime Union (Ohio) Socialist organization, was sentenced today by Federal Judge Sater to eight months in the Delaware county jail. Jerger pleaded guilty to opposing the Federal act on registration. He was registered, however, after being arrested.

AMERICAN HELD

COPENHAGEN (via London), June 15.—Michael J. Stark of Chicago, an employee of the International Harvester Company at Neuss, Prussia, arrived here from Germany last night. He had been trying since February 6 to obtain a passport and was just now given permission to leave Germany. He says that a number of Americans have been refused passports until the war is over. On the other hand, the German authorities are pressing American women to leave the country.

HELD FOR SPEECH

HANFORD, June 15.—Frank Brown, a Portuguese, of Selma, is being held here in the county jail for speaking against President Wilson and the government. His remarks were prompted by the query: "Have you bought a Liberty Bond?" Following his tirade, his Portuguese friends turned him over to the local authorities.

CAMP IS DAMAGED

YOSEMITE, June 15.—Fire damaged the large wooden building used for the dining-room and kitchen for guests at El Capitan Camp in the heart of the Yosemite Valley, early today. The extent of the damage had not been ascertained. First reports indicated that the fire may have reached some of the camps.

EMMA GOLDMAN HOLDS MEETING

NEW YORK, June 15.—Emma Goldman was permitted to speak unmolested by the authorities at another anti-draft mass meeting here tonight. Thomas D. McCarthy, United States marshal, announced at her last previous appearance that he would take her into custody if she attempted to speak again.

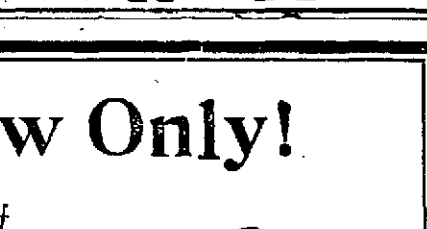

It was reported that McCarthy fully intended to make good his threat, but was deterred at the last moment by a hint from Washington that if Miss Goldman were arrested she probably would pose as a martyr. Miss Goldman again attacked the government for the passage of the draft law, as did Alexander Berkman, who presided at the meeting.

Elaborate preparations had been made by the police to prevent disorder, but they had little trouble. At the close of the meeting those who attended were compelled to pass out in single file.

Registration cards were demanded from all men who seemed to be of military age. Several who could not produce cards or make satisfactory explanations were held for further investigation.

"STUDY FIRST," THE ADVICE TO BOYS IN SCHOOL

SACRAMENTO, June 15.—"Finish your course if you intend to go to college," is the advice of Will G. Wood, commissioner of secondary education, to high school boys who may be inclined to leave school to fill positions left vacant by young men who are drafted into the army.

"The high school boys of California can perform a far more patriotic service for their country by finishing their courses in preparation for the specialized training of the universities than by taking up industrial pursuits next fall, when the selective draft takes away a large number of the young men now working," says

CREDIT A BUSINESS PROPOSITION TO MEN

You think nothing of having your grocery bill charged. You buy a home, a house or a lot on easy payments. Furniture is sold on installments daily. It is a rare thing that anybody pays cash for an automobile. Now, why is it not just as reasonable for a person to buy clothes on installments? Cherry's Credit Clothing plan answers the question very emphatically in the affirmative. It is the plain business man's idea, and the fundamental of all business.

A man uses the same business principle in buying a suit of clothes as he would in using his credit anywhere else. He gets the best quality of merchandise, superior workmanship, style, excellent fabric and entire satisfaction at a lower price by paying just a small amount down and the balance in easy weekly installments to suit his convenience.

Cherry's in San Francisco is operated under the same management as the Cherry Credit Stores in Los Angeles, Oakland, Sacramento, Portland and Tacoma and under the same liberal policy. You get the advantage of concentrated buying for several stores.

Tomorrow being Saturday, Cherry's stores all stay open until 10 p. m. Cherry's have two stores in Oakland—the ladies' store at 515 13th St. and the men's store at 528 13th St. In San Francisco they also have two stores—one at 48 and 52 Geary St. and 2400 Mission, corner 20th—Advertisement.

U-BOAT BRUTALITY TOLD BY SAILORS

LONDON, June 15.—Two further instances of the inhumanity of German submarine methods have just been published.

Ten members of the crew of the British steamer Kuriba, which was torpedoed without warning 230 miles from land on April 12 were picked up after twelve days spent in an open boat. For seven days they had been without food and two of the survivors died after their rescue. Another boat with twenty-one men has not been heard from, and it is feared it was lost with all on board.

The British steamer Calabrese was torpedoed without warning on April 19 while 240 miles from land. The captain and twenty men were drowned and the remainder of the crew was found in a capsized boat on which they had drifted for sixteen days without food. Only two were alive when the boat was picked up.

San Francisco, June 15.—Complete investigation of the serious charges brought against Dr. William H. Harrison, assistant surgeon of the Emergency Hospital ambulance service, will be made at a future meeting of the Board of Health.

This decision was reached last night by the board after copies of Harrison's alleged letters to Miss Davis Sinkins had been read before the body's executive session.

Mrs. Virginia E. Brown, one of the two women who tried to horsewhip the physician, under investigation, in his office May 19, sent the letter copies to the board. She is a sister of Miss Sinkins, and, after the sensational endeavor to cause the physician, brought serious charges against him as to his relations with the younger woman.

Mrs. Brown, in a letter to Mayor Rolph last Tuesday, made similar charges against Dr. Harrison, and demanded his dismissal from municipal service. The board received no official notification from the mayor that he had received this dismissal request. Mrs. Brown and Miss Sinkins will be cited to appear before the board while the investigation is proceeding. Dr. William C. Hassler, health officer, moved for the investigation last night. Dr. Harrison refused to comment upon the case.

Dr. Wallace I. Terry will act as chief surgeon in the Emergency service during the absence of Dr. Alanson Weeks, who has joined base hospital No. 30, Red Cross. Dr. Terry was chief surgeon in 1907-08, but of late has been professor of surgery at the University of California.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile, crumbles into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. PHYSICIAN WILL FACE ACCUSERS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—Complete investigation of the serious charges brought against Dr. William H. Harrison, assistant surgeon of the Emergency Hospital ambulance service, will be made at a future meeting of the Board of Health.

This decision was reached last night by the board after copies of Harrison's alleged letters to Miss Davis Sinkins had been read before the body's executive session.

Mrs. Virginia E. Brown, one of the two women who tried to horsewhip the physician, under investigation, in his office May 19, sent the letter copies to the board. She is a sister of Miss Sinkins, and, after the sensational endeavor to cause the physician, brought serious charges against him as to his relations with the younger woman.

Mrs. Brown, in a letter to Mayor Rolph last Tuesday, made similar charges against Dr. Harrison, and demanded his dismissal from municipal service. The board received no official notification from the mayor that he had received this dismissal request. Mrs. Brown and Miss Sinkins will be cited to appear before the board while the investigation is proceeding. Dr. William C. Hassler, health officer, moved for the investigation last night. Dr. Harrison refused to comment upon the case.

Dr. Wallace I. Terry will act as chief surgeon in the Emergency service during the absence of Dr. Alanson Weeks, who has joined base hospital No. 30, Red Cross. Dr. Terry was chief surgeon in 1907-08, but of late has been professor of surgery at the University of California.

AUTOIST KILLED.

PESCADEIRO, June 15.—Edwin A. Eaton, manager of the Wiedeman interests at Pescadero and widely known throughout San Mateo county, was found dead early today beneath his overturned automobile at the bottom of a five-foot embankment near here. He is survived by a wife and daughter.

RUSSIA'S POSITION.

Now that the American commission to Russia, headed by Hon. Elihu Root and Major-General Hugh L. Scott, has arrived safely in Petrograd, the next question to occur in this connection is whether America will be able to bridge the chasm, real or imaginary, between Russia and the allies. It is indisputably important that this be done if possible. The continued participation of Russia in the war is one of the most vital problems facing the United States and the entente powers. If Russia should conclude a separate peace and cease to engage the forces of the central powers on the eastern front, she will not assume the status of a neutral, but that of an ally of Germany and Austria. And if this unfortunate development should come about, the brunt of the war then will fall in reality upon the United States.

There is abundant reason to believe that the United States will be successful in retaining Russia as a member of the group of nations fighting for democracy. The expressed aims of Russia and the United States coincide so nearly as not to leave any apparent ground for disagreement between the two governments. According to the various statements of the provisional government of Russia since its establishment, the Russian people insist upon "a general peace which shall not tend toward either dominion over other nations, the seizure of their national possessions or violent usurpations of their territories"; "no indemnities"; "to see created in the allied democracies new aspirations toward a stable peace and brotherhood of nations"; "to carry into effect the ideas of liberty, equality and fraternity beneath the standards of which the great Russian revolution came to birth"; "renunciation of annexation of Constantinople and Dardanelles straits"; "a united independent Poland."

President Wilson has stated the views of the American government on all these points raised by Russia and there is no disagreement anywhere. The only qualification is with reference to indemnities. The President insists that reparation shall be made for manifest wrongs. On the other hand, such explanations of peace conditions as the German government has made are opposed in toto to the views of the Russian provisional government.

The heavy burden of working out the details of holding Russia to the views it has already expressed and to those of her present allies devolves for the most part upon the Root commission. It is no light task. It is a work inseparably connected with the future destiny of the Russian people and nation. Apparently the undertaking has been made somewhat easier by the declaration of Great Britain and France approving the message to the Russian people from President Wilson. But we cannot consider that we "are out of the woods" of the Russian problem until it is definitely known what is the exact strength of the present Russian government among the different classes of the Russian people and what measure of success is possible for enemy intrigue.

IMMIGRANTS AND CITIZENSHIP.

Many prominent educators in the country have joined in a national organization for the purpose of bringing together all the people born in other countries, of eradicating seeds of discord among them and to teach them those things that may serve to make them give their allegiance and support to this country first of all. Mr. Milton B. McIntosh, assistant specialist in immigration education of the Department of the Interior, explains the purpose of the new organization thus:

"Heretofore terrible misunderstandings of the foreigner here have been a constant source of friction and have at times reached a point where national clashes seemed inevitable. The America First campaign contemplates the eradicating of national differences within our borders. We believe that the reflex action on governments abroad will be productive of real and lasting peace."

A circular has been addressed to all immigrants in the United States which explains that this country has different customs, ideas, habits of thinking, traditions, and a different form of government from the country from which they came. It is recommended that the immigrants learn the English language, study about the United States, its geography, its history, the lives of its great men, its industries and varied business activities and the opportunities for which the government stands.

This is a praiseworthy work, but it should not be understood as intended to supplant any of the other activities toward making the immigrant over into an intelligent, self-sustaining and patriotic American citizen. Such work as is now under way for the practical education of foreign citizens who are or may become candidates for American citizenship should be continued with redoubled energy. Night schools, chambers of commerce, organizations of women, the industries, libraries, foreign language newspapers, labor unions, sectarian organizations, patriotic societies and Young Men's and Young Women's Christian associations—all should lend a hand.

The readjustments that are in progress in the governments of Europe will affect the relation between the individual and the state, in some cases weakening and in others perhaps strengthening the bonds. It is the duty of the United States to exert its best effort to give the fullest possible meaning to American citizenship, to make the bonds between the individual and the government strong in faith, loyalty and patriotism and to keep them strong. The weak links heretofore have been in the naturalized element. Now is the opportunity to correct a discouraging situation.

The three billion war budget has finally passed Congress and gone to the President for his signature. It includes practically everything asked for by the administration, one of the largest items being an appropriation of $750,000,000 for the construction of an American merchant marine. Once more the government may be reminded that no excuse remains for delay in pressing war preparations and activities with all possible energy and speed.

"More tribal leader and his adherents wiped out by constabulary," is the information contained in a cablegram from Manila. This is another evidence of the uplifting influence of education among the Moros.

GOOD WILL COME OUT OF THE WAR

To the Editor of The Tribune:

There are always prophets of evil in every calamity, whether the calamity be local or national, or worldwide, as in the present war. Many curstome politicians, agitators, nihilists and some very good people as well, second-coming-of-Christ people, are telling us that the end of the world is near; that the war is an absolute and total evil; that Christianity is a failure; that if there be a God of mercy and justice at all, what then, has become of Him, and why does He not stop this worst and most destructive and most unjustifiable war of all history?

In the categorical statements that follow I have indicated some of the good and possible good results that come in the train of war.

1. Extensive and genuine revivals; these are already in progress in France, and in many other parts of Europe; many thousands in distress are seeking, as never before, the consolations of the Gospel and the Church.

2. The destruction of the saloon and the absolute control of the liquor traffic by making it amenable to law. When we consider what has already been accomplished in our own land, that more than 50 per cent of our territory is "dry," and that more than 65 per cent of our population is now living in saloonless territory, and that of our forty-eight States a majority have banished the saloon and the brewery; that the District of Columbia, where our laws are made, and our greatest men assemble, has banished the liquor business; when we remember what Germany and Russia have done against their beer and vodka, and how the whole world is aroused against the waste of corn and wheat in the manufacturing of intoxicants when they are so sadly needed for food—we may well hope and safely prophesy that the coming generations will see the complete elimination of the liquor business.

3. A third fruit of the war will be the coming of a Christian democracy, and the downfall of monarchy, oligarchy, aristocracy and of the Hohenzollerns, who for more than 200 years have made the kings of Germany and of other parts of Europe; we shall hear less of "the divine rights of kings," and more of the divine rights of the people, all the people—men, women and children.

4. After the war there will be a much higher estimate placed upon girlhood, womanhood, motherhood, and woman will be universally enfranchised, as she richly deserves to be. The number of self-reliant and capable women will be greatly increased everywhere. "Polygamy" is hardly a probability in the near future, even in Germany," so says Mr. H. G. Wells. While woman has been the chief sufferer in this as in every war, so she will be the chief beneficiary and gainer by it.

5. This war will make future wars practically impossible for centuries to come, and, possibly, forever; this will be the last great war; such will be the loss of life and property, and such the burdens of taxation for many decades to come, that there will be little or no fear of any future experiments in war.

6. It is always a painful struggle to be born; or to be born again, and to enter upon a new and a higher life. We shall, at the close of this war, enter into a larger freedom and broader, higher thought-life; there will be less money and time given to material matters and more to all the institutions and means for the intellectual development of the race, such as the church, the school and the press, and to all the arts and means of a universal peace. This war is the birth struggle of the coming greater civilization, the greater man and an enduring peace.

7. There will be a vast improvement in social conditions and a more equitable distribution of wealth and work; there will be an abundance of work for all; the work of reconstruction and repairing the wastes of war in the city and country; there will be a better chance for the negro race, and the many semi-barbarous peoples in nearly every part of the world; it is

WITHDRAW FIGHT ON BASEBALL

PHILADELPHIA, June 15. — The suit brought by the owners of the defunct Baltimore Federal League club against organized baseball was dropped today in the district court.

Pressage of this action came yesterday when the plaintiffs suddenly rested their case.

Today the Federalists said they wished to go no further in the matter.

Announcement was made that they were no settlement outside of court. S. J. Hameyer, chief counsel for the Baltimore club, made the request in open court. The Federalists' attorneys followed a fifteen-minute conference with associated attorneys. No reason for the withdrawal was given.

They had charged that organized baseball was a trust and acting as such had strangled the Federal League and then failed to recompense Baltimore and then peace pact was made. Damages of $200,000 were asked.

Mrs. George Perkins Baxter has reopened her handsome Berkeley home after an absence of five weeks in Portland. A disciple of her dainty work bag, an enthusiast in Red Cross work, a tremendous admirer of the north in its devotion to the need and the greater promised need of its country, Mrs. Baxter is telling some wonderfully interesting stories of patriotism in the adjoining state. It is the reign of simple things up there with gingham and dainties, the most modest material which is permitted the women at theaters, luncheons, dinners or bridge parties. And there are no gloves. It is not smart to wear them.

The woman who has more than one servant sends all but the cook to Red Cross workrooms. The cook waits upon the table. Menus are gone back to coarse, satisfying food not over abundant, but sufficient. Friends entertain friends for no other reason than that they enjoy each other. The bridge parties have but one motif—the gleaming of dollars.

Round robin units of 100 have been organized by the smart leaders to satisfy the pleasure of the card table. Each member gives a bridge party of from two to twenty tables, according to her ambition, asking a contribution of from a dollar to four at table and offering a pretty bunch of flowers for the favors of the Robins are even too busy to do this and the effort becomes the signing a check for a sum to cover the promised party. This money reverts to the Red Cross.

The largest tragedy in the sewing circles here, as everywhere, is the inefficient work which must be demolished before it can be replaced. And such hours of time as are wasted!

Portland has even overcome this sad state of affairs. One of the large department stores has given an entire floor over to the use of the local branch, installing machines and every convenience. The system is automatic. There is no time to spare and no chatter. Consequently there is much accomplished. Society women have adopted the methods of the larger factories and turn out an amazing amount of product which is never discarded by the authorities. A volunteer is expected to be on time when she has chosen her hours. Upon every bit of work which she finishes she places her name. If it does not pass inspection, it is returned to her to do over again and if she does not perfect it she comes again no more.

Every artist who has been in Portland has appeared before full houses and a part of the proceeds has gone to patriotic work. When the films showing the American boys of the Ambulance Corps in action in France were shown they crowded the big auditoriums four times, a morning matinee being added as an extra and even then hundreds were turned away.

Everybody is knitting. Two dollars and eighty cents invested in gray wool will do wonders and no occasion is too sacred to dismiss the workbag—weddings, street cars, calls, even funerals have not been overlooked as places where something might be accomplished for the living.

It is interesting to know that the northern women are doing even when we are proudest of the work which our local maids and matrons are accomplishing. Mrs. Baxter will join as a leader the ladies of the Red Cross movement with a new enthusiasm because of what she saw during the weeks of her absence.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Captain Clarence E. Heald of the California Coast Artillery, and Miss Edith Hair of Alameda. The wedding was a simply appointed event of yesterday, taking place in this city. The bridegroom is in command of the second company A of the National Guards, stationed at the coast defenses of San Francisco. He belongs to a well-known family in this part of the state. Before joining the army he was connected with Heald's Business College.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mrs. Louise Spain and William Adams. The ceremony was celebrated yesterday afternoon in Plymouth Congregational church, with Rev. Albert W. Palmer officiating. Adams is a well-known clubman of San Francisco. His bride is the daughter of Mrs. Fanny Bromwell and represents a pioneer family on this side of the bay.

From across the continent comes the announcement of the marriage of Lieutenant Thomas Leigh Gatch, U. S. N., to Miss Nancy Weems Dashiell of Annapolis. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gatch of Berkeley. The ceremony was quietly solemnized in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Wednesday in Trinity church. Mrs. Gatch is the daughter of Mrs. Dashiell and the late Lieutenant Dashiell, U. S. N.

With Miss Olive Balmann, who is leaving in August to continue her studies, Mr. and Mrs. James Newton Dashiell will give a dinner on the evening of their home in Haddon road. Those who have been asked to meet the attractive young girl are: Mrs. John Wilcox, Miss Ulla Alexander, Miss Marjorie Gross, Miss Joanne Wilson, Miss Sigrid Miller, Miss Marjorie Boherd, Miss Alvera Donohue, Miss Martha Last, Miss Dorothy Carson, Miss Rebecca Balmann, Miss Katherine Balmann, Bertram Stratton, Benson Miller, Leslie Quick, Alonzo Bright, C. S. Sullivan, Harold Budge, Leland Stratton, Harry Bright, Robert Seal, Robert Stout, Franklin Marks, John McKinnin.

Miss Memory Doubleday will attend Miss Ethel Ferguson as bridesmaid at the beautifully planned wedding which will make her the bride of Frank McArthur on Tuesday evening. Miss Ferguson has planned of house ceremony at the family home across the bay with but a little company of the most intimate friends in attendance. The marriage rites will be read by Rev. Josiah Sibley. Besides Miss Doubleday in the bride party will be Mrs. Lester Ferguson.

The Curious Quest Mr. Ernest Bliss

By
E. Phillips Oppenheim

Nevertheless, when they were forty or fifty miles from London, Bliss began to have difficulties. Four times he made readjustments before he hit upon the real trouble—a defect in the wiring. They were then at a small inn in the heart of the New Forest and it was past seven o'clock.

Just as he had, at last, set things to rights, Mr. Montague came strolling out from the bar with a freshly-lit cigarette in his mouth.

"How are things looking now, Bliss?" he inquired.

"The trouble is over, sir," Bliss assured him. "I have just found out a defect in the wiring and repaired it. She'll go to anything now. Get you back to town in an hour or so."

Mr. Montague did not seem as elated as he should have been. He glanced around and drew Bliss a little way out into the deserted street.

"Look here, young man, do you want to earn a sovereign?"

Bliss' face expressed, or was meant to express, immense rapture. A sovereign! An unheard-of sum!

"A very large present," he continued with a sigh, "and very easily earned. I want you not to be able to start the car again."

Bliss looked for a moment as he felt puzzled.

"The nearest station," he explained, dropping his voice into a hoarse whisper, "is three miles away, and the last train goes in half an hour. There isn't a car to be hired in the village. Go on with your work, or seem to be going on with it, for another hour. Then come in and tell me that you are very sorry you can't start off again without a spare part, which you'll have to wire to London for."

Then Bliss understood. He looked away from Mr. Montague onto the road. It was shrouded just a little, fighting hard for self-control.

Mr. Montague drew a gold coin from his sovereign purse.

"It's the easiest earned money," he went on, "you were ever offered. Just attend carefully to what I say. In about an hour come in and kneel at the door of the sitting-room and bring your report. Meanwhile I shall go and order some dinner here, in case"—he added with a portentous whiff—"we should find ourselves unable to start."

He departed, and Bliss sat down to cool for a few minutes. Then, while Mr. Montague was engaged on the other side with the landlady, he slipped into the sitting-room.

"Frances!" he said firmly, "come out at once!"

There was a new ring in his tone, and she obeyed without questioning. She even, at his bidding, climbed up into the car by his side. He started the engine and sprang to his place.

They were gliding on the edge of the yard before Mr. Montague caught sight of them. He came tearing out, his coatails flying behind him.

"Hi!" he spluttered. "Hullo! What are you doing, Bliss? Bring back that car, you young blackguard, do you hear?"

Bliss looked over his shoulder.

"You stay there and eat your dinner," he shouted, "or, if you run, you may catch the last train from Woodford."

An incoherent stream of language reached the rapidly snatches. They had turned into the London road now. Frances began to get frightened.

as matron of honor and two ribbon carriers, Miss Myrtle Hendrie and Miss Missie Hendrie, and Miss Marjorie McArthur will assist his brother as best man.

Miss Doubleday, who is among the popular girls in the Piedmont set, is the fiancée of Wilfred Ferguson, a brother of Tuesday evening's bride-elect.

The arrival of Mrs. Robert Abernathy will be the signal for a round of social pleasure in honor of the attractive army matron who claims so wide an acquaintance in the east shore community. Mrs. Abernathy is visiting in Alameda as the house guest of Mrs. Louis James, of Mrs. Swayne and Miss Helen Swayne. For the past several months she has been in the Philippines, where her husband, Major Abernathy, has been stationed.

Willard Barton, who is spending the summer in California, has joined a party of friends who have motored to the south for a several weeks' trip. The little group have San Diego as their final destination, but will stop at many of the pleasuring grounds en route. After his rest in California Barton, who was formerly one of the leaders in the smart set on both sides of the bay, will rejoin Maude Adams' company.

The Family Welfare of the dependents of drafted men is the theme to which the students in the Polytechnic's Red Cross classes in San Francisco will give their attention next week. On Monday Professor Ira Cross of the University of California will be the speaker, discussing the standard of living. Family budgets under normal conditions and under war conditions will be compared by T. Brookman of the Family Budget Committee of the American Economics Association on Wednesday morning. Dr. Adele Jaffa, lecturer in dietetics for the University of California will speak of the minimum dietaries on Friday.

In addition to the lectures course practical training in the clinic and field work in local problems is given the students in preparation for relief emergency brought about by war conditions.

Women of leisure are urged to give their volunteer work in this service. The complex problems of those who are not charity cases but whose disorganized family life has been brought about by the sacrifice of the bread winner to his country will demand a nice solving and one demanding a fine intelligence and deep sympathy.

Miss Marion Hawkinson was a bridge hostess yesterday, claiming as her guests a coterie of close friends who have not yet taken to their occasional game of cards together, although the season is so far advanced. A prettily appointed tea rounded out the informal affair, which was given at the "Highlands."

Friends about the bay are receiving cards telling of the marriage of Miss Audine Abbott and Allen Ralston Curtis. The wedding took place in Napa on May 7, with St. Mary's Episcopal Church as the setting. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sage Abbott, belongs to a prominent family in Sonoma, Tuolumne county. She was a student in Miss Hamilton's finishing school, and has been a frequent visitor in the bay cities. Curtis is the son of A. A. Curtis, the well-known lumber man.

BODY OF MINER WHO SAVED 25 IS RECOVERED

BUTTE, June 15.—The body of Manus Duggan, who by bulkheading an entry in the Speculator Mine after the fire began last Friday night, saved 25 men from death has been brought to the surface.

The body was identified by letters and a slip of a paper on which he had written a note to his wife. On another he had written his will, leaving his home to his wife and child. The letters were written Sunday morning and said that the air was becoming foul. He wrote that he did not fear death.

BIG CLASS LISTED
WEST POINT, N. Y., June 15.—A class of 332 new cadets has been admitted to the military academy. This is the largest "plebe" class in the history of the institution.

MOB WITH FLAGS RIOTS IN STREETS

AURORA, Ind., June 15.—Exciting scenes marked the close of Flag Day in Aurora, a mob of citizens numbering 1500 to 2000, including many women, last night causing an enforced display of American flags on homes and business places of pro-German sympathizers.

For more than two hours the crowd marched from house to house, dragging men out of their homes, some in night attire, and forcing them to hold flags over their homes, others to wave and salute flags. The nearest approach to violence was the exchange of fist blows between the mob and the present enrollment of the Academy up to 900.

WAR WORK OF Y. M. C. A. IS TOPIC

F. A. McCarl, executive secretary of the western division of the Y. M. C. A. war work council, speaking to the campaign workers at their meeting last night, dwelt on the great need of funds with which to organize and carry on an effective work. He told of conditions on the Mexican border as he had observed them, and spoke of the campaign in the other cities, especially in San Diego, where they raised over $6000 at their initial meeting, and had agreed to make an effort to raise $10,000, instead of the $5000 allotted to them by the state committee.

Albert G. Scott, who is here in Oakland setting up the Red Cross campaign, spoke briefly regarding the conditions in the camps throughout the country as he had observed them, and stated that there was a tremendous need at the present moment for the social and welfare service that is being rendered by the associations.

The report yesterday showed that $15,000 had been solicited by the workers during that day. President R. T. Fisher announced an anonymous subscription of $500. The team to carry off first honors for the day was that of A. H. Hicham, and second place was captured by T. M. Cramer and his dormitory team. The total subscriptions for the week now amount to $1877.50, and the committee is making a special drive to bring it up to over the $10,000 mark.

FIVE MORE SUNK

LONDON, June 15.—Loss of five additional Norwegian ships, with heavy loss of life, was announced in cables from Copenhagen today, making the U-boat toll eight Norwegian ships in two days.

The Norwegian foreign office lists the losses as follows: Cavmet, a sailing vessel, driven ashore by gunfire. Excepting one man who was found dead her entire crew is missing. Vinæs, 1107-ton steamer, only four saved. Sigon, 2138 tons, and the sailing vessels Sylvia and Canadace, the crews of which were rescued.

FORCE SUBSCRIBES

County Assessor Horner's office force has subscribed for Liberty loan bonds amounting to $7600.

THREE WILL AID U. S. WAR COUNCIL

Acting upon the request of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, the board of directors of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce at its regular meeting this week authorized the appointment of a committee of three, who will be ex-officio members of the war council of the national body. The committee will work with the larger committee in the compilation of data and general information of general value to the government.

B. A. Forster, chairman of the transportation committee, tendered his resignation as head of that department of the Chamber of Commerce, and George P. Baxter was appointed to succeed him. It was intimated that the Chamber of Commerce, through its transportation connections, might be drawn into the Key Route request to the State Railroad Commission for permission to increase rates as an authoritative body upon east bay conditions.

OIL FIELD RIGHTS

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Representative Kahn of California today appealed to President Wilson to urge passage of emergency legislation recognizing the rights of California oil operators to claims they established years ago. Kahn declared that at a time the nation is in need of all its oil resources the differences between the government and the California operators should be settled so that the Pacific coast fields can be made to contribute their full share to the oil supply.
